COVID-19 mask reminder

Please remember, Governor Ige's mask order is still in place and masks should be worn in all common areas, and outside while on Plaza Hawaii Kai property.

Did You Know? Fifty years ago this month, about three dozen demonstrators were arrested in Hawaii Kai's Kalama Valley. They were trying to block eviction of farmers whose property was slated for further development of the subdivision. This protest is considered a starting point for the current Hawaiian activist movement.
